There followed a discussion regarding the proposed Football Club lease and Cllr.Isaacs reported on the meeting that had been held with the FC which included a request for a longer lease for grant purposes. The electric supplier had stated there would be difficulties providing another meter but a suggestion was made in council that we meter our own electric to the floodlights and charge users accordingly rather than pay the FC on their meter readings.

It was also reported that a meeting had been arranged between Village Hall Management Committee and PC re Pre-school playgroup – Councillors to report to next meeting.

Clerk reported that a letter had been received from OCC confirming the offer of 19.7 acres of land off Cottage Road
